Queen Elizabeth Scholarships Available at Saint Mary's University in Canada

The Canadian Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Scholarships (QES) is managed through a unique partnership of Universities Canada, the Rideau Hall Foundation (RHF), Community Foundations of Canada (CFC), and Canadian Universities. This program is made possible with financial support from the Government of Canada, provincial governments and the private sector.

Uganda Martyrs University and Saint Mary's University in Halifax, Canada are partnering to offer UMU students the chance to either complete a Master's Degree or conduct research contributing to their UMU Master's Degree at Saint Mary's University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

The project runs until December of 2018, when all Degree programs and research would need to be completed. It is a fully funded scholarship, including airfare, insurance, accommodations, food, tuition, winter clothing, etc.

The scope of the project focuses on Community Development in general, though can have many research implications such as how topics such as Microfinance, Entrepreneurship, Corporate Social Responsibility, Marketing, Information Technologies etc. relate to community development.

The project would welcome applications for degrees in the Masters of Business Administration, Masters of International Development Studies and Masters of Technology, Entrepreneurship and Innovation programs, as well as research conducted with a professor in any of these disciplines. The target group at UMU are the Master of Arts in Development Studies, Master of Business Administration and Master of Science in Information System.
